

Onboarding: Department Information

Complete with supervisor and/or department head

What are the major events or activities that the department organizes? When do they take place?

Who in the department processes or manages financial transactions?

What financial information would be helpful for department managers to know? Are there reports or analysis they would like to see?

Are there programs, events, funding, or activities that need to be tracked separately?

Additional notes: