

FFF – June 5, 2020

1) Sensitive payee data in disbursement requests

2) Taking extra care to avoid fraud

3) Gift cards may not be used for Awards

An award, per the University definition, is a cash or non-cash item given to show thanks, support, goodwill or recognition of an outstanding accomplishment. When awards are given, they may be subject to taxation. As such, gift cards are not an acceptable method of presenting awards.

More information on the University's Gift Card policy can be found here.

4) New notifications for disbursement requests - August 2020

5) New GL Descriptions Report